Address: 11817 288th St. East, Graham, WA 98338
Phone Number: (360) 893-6924
Seasonal Availability: Assorted fruits and vegetables, herbs and flowers.
Interest in Picking Up Restaurant Compost: Only if the scraps are “organic” and the source is local - any distance would not be feasible.
Other Farm Information: Giovanini Farm is just starting. The first year’s biggest mistake was not thinking BIG enough. More acreage is being tilled for next season and we will be participating in a local farmer’s market. The best response the first year was our unusual salads, containing many different salad greens, herbs and edible flowers. Our open range eggs are in great demand and plans for transitional meat production to “certified organic” are underway.
